NEW EQUIPMENT FOR WMUL-TV

A federal grant of $106,575 has been approved for the West Virginia Educational Broadcasting Authority to purchase equipment for WMUL-TV, the office of Congressman Ken Hechler announced Wednesday.

WMUL-TV General Manager T. H. Hollinger said the federal money will be matched with $35,525 by the Broadcasting Authority for a total project cost of $142,100.

Hollinger said the money will be used to purchase two color videotape recording-playback machines. One of the machines will be installed in WMUL-TV's Nitro studios and the other will be added to the WMUL-TV facilities on the Marshall University campus.

Wives celebrate 50th anniversary

The Faculty Wives Club was founded in October, 1922. On Oct. 6, 1972, the Club held its Golden Anniversary meeting to honor charter members and past presidents.

According to a booklet prepared by the Club, in 1922 "Mrs. Ralph Hron called together the sixteen ladies, who formed the group to meet, sew, lunch, sip coffee and chat. We today do much the same things, although our number has grown to 265.

"The past presidents have each led the Faculty Wives into ever expanding responsibilities as their interests have widened and their numbers increased, however the purpose of the organization is still the same: 'To promote the social and cultural life of the Marshall University Group'."

1972-73 officers for the Wives Club include: Mrs. Clayton Page, president; Mrs. Donald Carson, first vice president; Mrs. David Woodward, second vice president; Mrs. Charles Peele, secretary-historian; Mrs. James Harless, treasurer; Mrs. Tony Williams, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. William Gordon, past president.

HAPPY ANNIVERSARY!!

Credit Union Day

Thursday, Oct. 19, 1972, is Credit Union Day so the Huntington Chapter of the West Virginia Credit Union League is having a dinner to celebrate—and you're invited to attend, according to Judy Riley, secretary.

The dinner will be held at the MU Memorial Student Center Oct. 19 at 7 p.m. Joseph McMullen, Marshall's athletic director, will be the guest speaker.

Each Credit Union which has paid its chapter dues will receive two free tickets. Additional tickets may be purchased for $4.75 each. Make your reservations at INCO Employees Federal Credit Union, 416 Main Street, Huntington, phone 529-7871. The deadline for making reservations is Monday, Oct. 16.

"There will be a door prize for some lucky man and woman," said Mrs. Riley.

Louise Bailey, publicity chairman for the MU Credit Union, said she hopes "Marshall will be well represented."

The machines are needed to give WMUL-TV greater capability and more flexibility in production of television programs locally, Hollinger said. In addition, they will improve the station's capabilities in playback of programs and in off-the-air "dubbing" of programs.

The proposal, which was originated by the WMUL-TV advisory committee, was submitted by the West Virginia Educational Broadcasting Authority to the U.S. Office of Education on Jan. 30, 1970, Hollinger said. The funds will be provided through the Office of Education Educational Broadcasting Facilities program.

UF Goal $12,000; your help needed

If you have not already received one, you will soon have delivered to you an envelope containing an explanatory brochure about the United Fund campaign and a contribution card. Please list your contribution or pledge on the card and return it to the person who gave it to you. If you so desire, you may indicate the particular agency you prefer to receive your gift. If not, rest assured a worthy local group will be your beneficiary.

According to Leo Imperi, general chairman of the UF Drive for Marshall, "Our goal is $12,000; not a burdensome figure, we must admit. As a rough suggestion, an average contribution of $25 from the approximately 500 'salaried' individuals on campus will do the job. Many give much more—as high as $150. There are several hundred wage earners whose incomes restrict contributions to a much smaller figure. That's the story. Do your best!"

Many thanks from:

William Ashford, Sam Stinson, Dorothy Johnson, Carole Vickers, Charles Evans, Paul Collins, Richard Waite (vice-chairman and chairwomen), and Leo Imperi, general chairman.

Carson appointed

Dr. Donald Carson, director of university relations, was one of seven people appointed by Huntington Mayor Millard to the new civic center board Tuesday evening, Oct. 10.

Carson will serve a five-year term on the newly-formed board.

University Theater

The Welshman who escaped responsibility "to poetry through every bar and bedroom between Texas and Greenwich Village, between Harvard and Hell," is the subject of Marshall University Theater's next production.

"Dylan," by Sydney Michaels, will be presented at Old Main Auditorium Oct. 18-21 at 8 p.m., under the direction of Prof. William Kearns.

Tickets are available in the Speech Department office, Smith Hall 257.

News and notes around the campus...

HOMECOMING COMIN'

The Marshall University Homecoming game is scheduled for Saturday, Oct. 21, with Western Michigan at 1:30 p.m. Other Homecoming activities include a concert Thursday, Oct. 19, at the Memorial Field House, 8 p.m. The Homecoming Dance will be Saturday, Oct. 21, at 9 p.m. at the Field House.

On Friday, Oct. 20, a reception sponsored by the Alumni Association will be held in the Georgian Terrace of the Hotel Frederick from 8 to 10:30 p.m. A post-game reunion party is planned for Saturday at 5 p.m. at the Hotel Frederick.

Prior to the Homecoming game, the Alumni Association will sponsor tours of the campus beginning at 10 a.m. at the Memorial Student Center.

Faculty recital

A violin and viola recital will be presented by Alfred P. Lanegger, associate professor of music, Wednesday, Oct. 18, in the Evelyn Hollberg Smith Music Hall at 8 p.m.

The program consists of Sonata No. III, Corelli; Sonata Op. 12, No. 1 in D, Beethoven; Deuxieme Suite, D'Hervelois; and Five French Dances, Marais.

Accompanying Lanegger at the piano will be William R. Davidson, associate professor of music.

Harless named

Marshall Director of Admissions James W. Harless was named president-elect of the West Virginia Association of Collegiate Registrars and Admissions Officers last Friday at the close of the organization's three-day convention here. He will assume the presidency next October.

Marshall was host for the convention.

Doyle Zwable of Salem College was installed as president, succeeding Marshall Registrar Robert H. Eddins. Charles Ferrell of Alderson-Broadbudd College was elected to a two-year term as secretary-treasurer.

Harless joined the Marshall staff in 1963 as director of the Logan campus. He became assistant director of admissions in 1967 and assumed his present position in 1971. He received his B.S. degree from Morris Harvey College and his M.A. from Marshall.

Social Science Research Council

An organizational meeting of the Social Science Research Council will be held Monday, Oct. 16. All interested persons are invited to join the meeting in Smith Hall, eighth floor, from 12 noon to 1 p.m. with paper bag lunches.

Marching band festival

Four and one-half hours of musical entertainment are scheduled for Huntington's Fairfield Stadium Saturday afternoon, Oct. 14, as 26 high school bands take to the field in the Marshall University Tri-State Marching Band Festival.

Dr. Robert R. Clark, director of bands and festival chairman, said the event will get under way at 1 p.m. and continue until 5:30 p.m.

The bands, from West Virginia, Ohio and Kentucky, will be competing for ratings, awards, and selection as the festival's honor band, said Clark.

The event is being sponsored by the Marshall Music Department with assistance from the Huntington Economic Development Commission. Proceeds will go to the Marshall band scholarship fund.

Art lovers take note

A contemporary art exhibition is on display through Oct. 22 in the James E. Morrow Library lounge and the sixth floor hall of Smith Hall.

According to Dr. Arthur S. Carpenter, chairman of the art department, the exhibit is being presented by a faculty group from Chico State (Calif.) College.

The exhibit pieces include water colors, etchings, lithographs, drawings, woodcuts, and lino-seigraphs according to Dr. Carpenter. Most paintings are for sale.

Attends symposium

Richard Rosswurm, assistant professor of political science, attended a symposium on Jacques Maritain (a prominent contemporary French philosopher) at St. Joseph's College, Rensselaer, Indiana, on Oct. 6 and 7.

Rosswurm presented a paper entitled "Jacques Maritain's Political Relevance."

Professors present papers

Dr. Howard G. Adkins and Dr. Mack H. Gillenwater, assistant professors of geography, read papers at the annual meeting of the East Lakes Division of the Association of American Geographers at Indiana University of Pennsylvania, Oct. 5 and 6.

Dr. Adkins' paper was entitled "Estimated Anticipated Tax Revenues and Redevelopment in the Downtown Renewal Area Project: Huntington, West Virginia."

Dr. Gillenwater's topic was "Mining Settlement Patterns in Southern West Virginia: A Case Study of the Pocahontas Coal Field."
